HE MET HIS DOOM

to arrive until 6 o'clock and later.
Doctors, officers, and newspaper men were admitted to the jail.

Winston talked prayed and preaching, although he once said that Mc-Gillought have been hanged with him.

Winston talked prayed and preaching, although he once said that Mc-Gillought have been hanged with him.

Winston Died Game in Expiation of the Horrible

Winston, but replied he didn't he was born, but replied he didn't he was born he was born he was uncompared to the was uncompared to th Murder of His Mistress

The Last Hours of the Wretch's Life, and the Tragic Details of His Untimely End.

7:20% this morning, in the presence of fifty spectators admitted to the enclosure and scores who occupied seats in trees on house tops and barns. His nack was not broken, death resulting from strangeling from the presence of fifty spectators admitted to the enclosure and scores who occupied failed him. The spectators began don't want any of you to say you saw me, either. If I come what he said of the subtle power back, and so I'll not come once in his life before he came to pack either way, and I carrying a pistol. Judging from say you saw me, either. If I come what he said of the subtle power back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown, golden to back it will be with my crown. death resulting from strangulation in muscular contraction was visible. slippers, robe and wings, do you she must have been a "hypnotist."

Deputy Sher if Tobe Rogers on the other, with unfaitering the Jost as he placed his foot on the steps, however, his hands began to tremble violently. He was attired in a near black suit, black gloves, his bands began to tremble within two inches of the ground when his body was entirely relaxed, and a seen a hand a least black suit, black gloves, and the latter of Grahamville only he saw several reporters and began to tell them not to say anything untrue about him "Here they came up here once and talked a little while and then went off and said I seen 'haunts.' I never the said I seen 'haunts.' I never the said I seen 'haunts.' I never the said I seen 'haunts.' sround him at the crowd, with hands not violent. classed behind him, and murmured After he was pronounced dead. comething that could not be heard.

Sheriff Holland and Deputies Rog. was cut. ers, Utterback and Young, and Rev. G. W. Burks, of the A. M. E. church, stood on the scaffold with him. In a few seconds, each one of which seemed like an hour to some of the spectators. Rev. Burks read a chapter from the hible, after which h sang "Nearer My Home." He invoked Divine forgiveness for the penitent sinner about to pay the extreme penalty for the crime of murder. Winston joined in the prayer in a rambling, unintelligible manner, and anid "Amen" with the preacher. Sheriff Holland then asked him if he desired to say anything. He replied that be did, and stepped forward a few feet. He would impatiently clasp his bands just in front of him. then behind. He spoke five quartes or more.

said he wanted to warn everybody to take example from his fate.

His words at first were scarcely audible, but as he progressed they became louder, and changed into a sort of weird chaut, something simi-Isr to that of some insane religious zealot-an uncanny sound that sent a momentary chili of horror through those within reach of his voice. Once, when a crowd of boys on the outside began to laugh and shout at something that had transpired without, he paused for a moment and gazed out towards the street. He then told the officers that he knew they were only doing their duty, and remarked to the crowd. "This is only justice, justice." He said he hope! was cut up by Officer Orr and dis- common-sense remarks, convince his his words would ring forever in the tributed among those who desired the hearers that he was perfectly sane. cars of his hearers.

He then called for Della Allen, a cious shooting at a Christmas festival near Maxon's Mills two years ago. There was a quick movement of the speciators, each involuntarily tion, and horribly distorted. easting his eye in some direction to see who it could be the doomed man those from the inclosure mingling of the gallows. They then went Allen proved to be in the upper department of the jail, and a crowd of boys who were hanging out the window, were ordered aside that he might get within sight of Wiaston. and hear what he had to say. When he protruded his head, Winston, in his own d'alect, began :

"Della, remember what I told you. Take warning! Let whisky. gambling and bad women alone. Look at me, and see what they have brought me to." In this velu he continued for what seemed several m nutes, although it was doubtless much less. Allen listened with rapi attention, and tears were visible in the eyes of several pirsoners who surround of the lower grating in the jail. After a few more "emarks in the same trend. Winston lowed to Deputy Speciff Regers and Sheriff Bolland. indicating that he was ready to die. The sheriff and deputies assisted him on the trap, with his face towards the south, and all shook hands with him. His arms were pinioned behind him by Deputy Rogers and another deputy securely fastened a rope around shortly afterwards, and Winston spent and he became angered. They quaris legs. Sheriff Holland stepped up, drew the black cap from his pocket, and unfolded it. Winston's ips moved in prayer. He asked Jesus to forgive him. When Sheriff Holland pulle I the somber cap down over the nurderer's head and face he felt the man's face quiver with fear as he stood on the brink of eternity. He then adjusted the or cause him to go the penitontiary to the wooded lever, which projected entrance to the gallows.

Winston murmured another brief night. prayer, the movement of his lips being discernable under their sable covering, and Sheriff Holland said,

The hour for the hanging was 7:05 no reason why sentence should not and those with tickets did not begin be passed upon him, when Judge have time to talk about it then, that his life was too short.

the bars and Winston began giving He went south early in life, and be them good advice, One youth began to cry.

go to heaven I won't want to come his wife but six months, ston's body shot like an arrow seven stay for. I won't want to come brother in Obion county, but has not "Devil" George Winston, tolored, feet below. As he went through the back, and I won't! If I go to the heard from them in over ten years, was banged in the south jait yard at trap he gave a most harrowing, blood- bad place, the devil won't let me He claims he was never arrested but Presently his fingers began to twitch, hear?" Winston, as generally anticipated, and his limbs to slowly draw up and Then he would relapse into his died game. He mounted the scaffold, relax. Drs. Brothers, Robertson and chant, and some of the prisoners with Sheriff Holland on one side, and Holland, the two former from the would continue to shed tears. Pres-and new shoes. His dark kinkey spectator kicked a rock out from un. seen a haunt in my life, gentlemen, hair glistened in the rays of the rising of the rising fun, and chanced the glintly patter of his inky face. His even protruded nounced dead. His neck was not more than usual, and glistened with a broken, despite the fall of seven or strange, helpless light. As he eight feet, and he died of strangula- saw one yet. I'd feel a little funny stepped upon the scaffold, he gazed tion. His struggles, however, were but then I never did see a haunt The worst 'haunts' they is, gentlemen, is live 'haunts,' ' several lifted him up while the rope Winston at times appeared to be temporarily insane either with the dropped, breaking, to some extent, Sheriff Holland retained the knot dreat of his doom, or from religious however slight, the fall. as a souver it, and part of the rope ferver. But he would soon, by his gruesome relics. them in a cheap coffin which was thought about them now. brought in after the execution.

with those who had been on the out- after the condemned mau.

WINSTON'S LAST NIGHT.

Winston's last night was a sleepless one. Yesterday a ternoon the tween Sheriff Holland and deputy jad was thrown open to those whose Rogers, with others in the rear. morbid cariosity prompted them to The crowd pressed closely, but was view the murderer in his cell. Seven kept back by policemen. Each one hundred and eighty-five people called strained himself or herself to see the to see him before the doors were prisoner, who looked straight ahead closed to visitors.

He attempted to sleep last night. but could only dose occasionally. Deputy Jailer Charlie Bonnin and Mr. Charles Hart acted as death watch. Whenever they passed near the cell Winston was always praying. About 2 o'clock the prisoner man. state. On he did was to drink the last of the clined to eat, saying he was not hungry. At a o'clock his spiritual adviser, Rev. Burks, arrived, and Win-most of his time praying and talking. pacing the floor constantly and thinking.

Last night he informed those present that he killed Vina Stubblefield because he loved her. That she had some irresistible attraction for himthat be once told her bimself she would sooner or later be the death of him. for life. In speaking of the woman he often lapsed into tenderness. and The sheriff motioned his deputies his last request was that his remains away from the trap, and waiked over be buried beside her in Pofter's field.

Yesterday be had his photograph out to the sperture that formed the taken, and appeared to be pleased when a proof was shown him last

PREPARATIONS FOR THE EXECUTION.

Undertaker Nance then took that he had not seen his mother nor from Pittsburg to Cairo, thence to colored trusty who has been in jail charge of the remains, and placed sisters since 1881, and that he never of Messers. The party consisted for some time on a charge of mail-them in a cheap coffin which was thought about them now.

The face, when the black cap was was thrown open, officer Sherman ter S. Connor and A. Lyon, New Altaken off, was covered with perspira- Phillips taking tickets. Sheriff Holland and deputy Rogers produced Gradually the crowd dispersed, the rope, and attached it to the beam > Sheriff Holland read the death warrant to him, there was hasty prayer, and the march to the scalfold began. He walked, bareheaded, bemost of the time.

THE CRIME HE EXPLATED.

The crime for which Winston was hanged was one of the most horrible but heries ever committed in the

On the night of April 22 Winston ened at 4 o'clock, and the first thing went to the home of his mistress, be did was to drink the last of the Vina Stubblefield, a notorious negwine he had in a bottle. He dressed ress, living in Dunnoi's alley, and and when breakfast was served de- finding her absent went to sleep on her bed. Shortly after midnight the morrow. woman returned to the house and awoke bim by striking a match Winston asked her for a cigarette. out a word of warning. Winston, in a manner true to his namesake, the devil, drew a knife and stabbed the woman in full view of Ed Morton, Isadore Herron and a woman named Ray. After stabbing the woman he threw her bloody body on the bed from which he had just arisen and slashed har in a dozen different places, cutting arteries with every blow of the knife. After finishing his heltish work Wieston took his valise, which was lieing in the room, and walked out, shouting words of defiance at the astounded witnesses to twenty days in jail.

the horrible butchery. He went in the direction of the railroad, but a careful search of the bening Gen. Weyler, teached Corun- Dickinson, of Orange, N. J., and yards and "Y" failed to reveal the na, Spain, vesterday. He will not go Rev. Donald D. McLaurin, of De-Before daylight people began ar- murderer. He was captured by Mar- ashore until Barcelona is reached, troit. The latter was not able to be each other for a good seat on neigh boring fences, house tops and out- at all, and seemed to accept his fate as a matter of course. He offered

George Winston was born in Crockett, Obion county, Tena., to A crowd of prisoners pushed up May 2, 1865, and was 32 years old. gan his career in New Orleans as cabin boy on a steamboat, afterwards "And I don't want any of you to becoming a rouster. He afterwards The Competitor's Crew Has at was married in Butler, but lived with

Today's hanging was the first since 1850, when Jesse Brown, colored, was executed for the murder of "Babe" Laurie. He was hanged on Jan. 15, early in the morning, and it was one of the coldest days ever experienced here, the thermometer being below zero. Notwithstanding the cold weather, however, the condemned man perspired so that steam arose from his face.

WINSTON'S FALL.

in way of explanation of why Winston's neck was not broken, that it was be ause the knot slipped around

SOME OF THE SPECTATORS.

Among the spectators were Mayor telser, City Physician Williamson, many of the city and county officers, Sheriff Starks, of Benton, and Detective John Lehnbard, of Evansville. and disease. Marshall Collins declined to go.

THE REMAINS. Coroner Nance will inter the rt-mains in potter's field tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, beside the grave of his victim, if it can be found, The coroner found it a difficult matter today to keep the people who wanted to see the remains away.

This afternoon he threw open the rear of his establishment and let them view the body. the fall during the day and took a

OHIO RIVER PILOTS.

Six Pass Through En Route to and the government had misled hun

New Orleans.

Trip of Inspection From Pittsburg.

The following Ohio river pilots, making their yearly trip down the Ohio to inspect the channel, passed Among other statements, one was through the city last night en route At 7 o'clock the jail enclosure Ky.; Henry Doss, Cincinnati Walbany; Howard Featon. Newport;

Stewart Connor, Cincinnati. eans every year, to find what changes ed the supposed tramp. have been made in the channel.

THE COURTS.

Damage Suit Dragging Through his friends are trying to make a the Federal.

Nothing of Interest in the Police or Circuit Court.

U. S. COURT. lamage suits closed its evidence this may be transferred to Collector morning in the Federal court, and Franks on that day, this afternoon several witnesses for BAPTIST CONGRESS ADJOURNS the defense had been heard. The case will probably be finished by to-

George Petway, Fawcett Clark and W. E. Berryman, for violation of revenue laws, were fined $100 and given 50 days in jail,

CIRCUIT COURT. The case of R. L. Potter against D. G. Murrell is now on trisl. A motion was today made for a

POLICE COURT.

He had the pistol on him when at and Prof. J. H. Harris, of Lewisrested. He was flued $50 and given burg, Pa-

IS BURNING.

Will be Untold Millions.

Last Been Released .- Blanco Not Pleased With Affairs in Cuba.

London. Nov. 19 -The biggest are in the history of London is now raging. Fifty fine stores have already been destroyed. All the street along the Thames is ablaze. The loss will be untold millions.

FREE AT LAST.

The Competitor's Crew Released By Spaniards, After a Pardon at Madrid.

Havana, Nov. 19 .- In pursuance of cabled instructions from Spain, received Wednesday, Capt. General Blanco yesterday released from Cabana fortress Alfrede Laborde. Charles Barnett. Ona Melton and William Gilden, members of the crew One of the doctors present stated of the American schoolier Competitor, captured in April 1896, by the Span-ish gunboat Mesagra on a charge of fillibustering. They were delivered to the American and United back of his neck, and because his to the American and British consuls feet struck the ground when he and have taken passage on the steamer Saratoga, of the Ward Line, for New York.

A number of families who have been at Las Fosos under the "concentration's order will be removed at he expense of the municipality to a private hospital. There is no diminution u the mortality from starvation

BLANCO WAS DECEIVED,

Wetter Did It. New York, Nov. 19 .- A dispatch from Havana says: "There is no sign yet of the full option the autonomist are dwindling way. The fault lies not with Gen. Blanco. There is every reason to bewere made in good faith. He is evideutly deeply incensed at the false position in which he is placed. He cabled to Madrid a day or two ago. saying Gen. Weyler had deceived! him as to the condition of the army autonomy, and broadly kinted that he felt inclined to ask to be relieved. "Every military commander of a Making Their Regular Annual town met, said he, had not yet received any orders regarding the exension of the zones of cultivation. The condition of the reconcentrados unaltered. Their sufferings are appalling. Unless Gen. Blanco takes more headway than he has lone yet, autonomy will be a dead regarding their sincerity in promising nic.

Zeo

letter in the Cuban issue." A Boy's Folly.

Williamston, Mich. Nov. 18olm Burgest, a youth of ninetees, ist night shot and killed George Hart at Meridian, a hamlet four miles west. Hart, who was eagaged to narry Burgess' sister, disguised him-These pilots, with many others, 1 self as a cowbay and trie I to frighten pass down from Pittsburg to New Or. Burgers, who became angry and kall English, Ind. Nov. 19.-President Weathers is here and has opened the bank's vault. There has been n demonstration, and Weathers and ettlement.

Franks Takes Charge Next Monday.

Washington, Nov. 18 .- Internal Revenue Agent C. W. Sewall was today notified by Commissioner Forman to check up the accounts of Collector Yandell at the close of bus-The prosecution in the two railroad iners next Monday, so that the office

Hesing Sessions Devoted to Discustions By Leading Lights of the Church.

Chiengo, Nov. 18 -This was the ast day of the Baptist Congress The morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to a discussion of two ubjects, "The Psychology of Conversion" and "The Power of the new hearing in the case of C. E. Jen- Cross in the Life of the Believer." nings, committee, against Mrs. Six of the leading lights of the burch were appointed to speak on the two questions. "The Psychology of Conversation" was discussed by There was but one case in Judge of Conversation" was discussed by Sanders' court today. Robert Caidwell, colored, was arrested by Oll- of Virginia; Nathantel Butler, Presicers Senser and Smedley last might dent of Colby University, Waterfor stabbing a couple of colored wo- ville, Me.; President W. S. Ryland, men and drawing a pistol on them, of Bethel College, Russeliville, Ky.,

At the afternoon session "The Power of the Cross in the Believer" The Span'sh steamer Monserrat, was discussed in papers by Rev. J.T. Good bye, George," and pulled the riving at the jail. A number of shall Jesse Walker, at Fulton, the following Sunday, and brought and meanwhile Spain is rending itself present and his paper was read by a shall Jesse Walker, at Fulton, the following Sunday, and brought and meanwhile Spain is rending itself present and his paper was read by a substitute. No place was selected for but like a flash of lightning, and Winjacent, while boys and men vied with wiler; he had been contact the present and his paper was read by a substitute. No place was selected for the contract the contract of the present and his paper was read by a substitute. No place was selected for the part of the paper was read by a substitute. No place was selected for the part of the paper was read by a substitute. No place was selected for the part of the paper was read by a substitute. The paper was read by a substitute. The paper was read by a substitute. The paper was read by a substitute with the congress of next year.

Heating Stoves

We have them in more than sixty sizes and patterns, for

COAL WOOD

We are the only people who can please you in every particular, as to style, quality and price.

INC COAL BUCKETS INC BEST QUALITY

HARDWARE AND STOVE CO.

303-307 Broadway ... 109-117 North Third-

GEO. ROCK & SON 321 BOOTS AND SHOES

For the past thirty nine years this familiar sign has been seen on Broadway. Every schoolboy or girl in Paducah knows the name of

We carry the same quality of goods today that we did thirty-nine. and III Plainly Says That Gen. years ago. That means the best goods you can buy for the money. We are upto date in style, color and price

A picture free with every cash purchase.

text of the promised reforms, and in GEO. ROCK & SON, 321 BROADWAY

> B. WEILLE & SO ....See display in outside Case....

CLUB TIES AND CLUB BY

In Stripes, Spots, Dots
and Figures.

25 Cents
Fach

Same quality for which other houses ask you 40c and 50c. We carry the finest line of Neckwear in the state.

B. WEILLE & SON

LET US HELP YOU

To have a comfortable and handsome home. We arrange that it won't cost you much, You will be delighted and surprised at our stock, with our low prices, with our reasonable terms. Our store is crowded with Handsome Bedroom Sats, Lounges. Rockers and Folding Beds, Latest Patterns of Carpets, Rugs, Mattings.

Our Stoves for both cooking and heating are unsurpassed for beauty and quality, See Our Ranges, our Trunks-in fact, anything that will furnish your house. Our promises have been fulfilled in the past, which inspired public confidence in us. We promise many astonishing bargains, and we always live up to our promises-we will never disappoint you. Remember our stores are open every evening until 9 oclock.

JONES INSTALLMENT COMPANY

CCRNER THIRD AND COURT STR ETS

Dalton Can Please You-

333 BROADWAY

Tailor-made suits to order for less money-than readymode ones of same quality. Everybody can wear a tailormade suit at the prices charged by

Dalten's Tailoring Establishment